Charity Fundraising Myongdo Welfare Foundation

Myongdo means the "The Bright Way" in Korean – leading people to a better quality of life. Since 1992, Sister Gerardine Ryan set up accommodation, factories and businesses for educationally challenged Koreans, a very marginalised group. Myongdo Welfare Foundation, located in Mokpo, supports the needs of over 700 children and adults with various learning disabilities. This charity aims to provide services for children and adults with disabilities that reflect individual needs and choice, while empowering them to become active and valued members of their communities.
