ANZA - June Recap

With two New Zealand Wine Festival events and the Māori New Year, this month had a distinctive Kiwi flavour!

As one of the highlights for June 2022 - ANZA Korea was pleased to partner with KiwiCham in hosting the first Matariki, Māori New Year, celebration in Korea. Reflecting on this important milestone, New Zealand Ambassador Philip Turner, ANZA President Dain Leathem and KiwiCham Chair, Dr Tony Garrett each provided some short welcome remarks. We would like to thank everyone that joined the event and extend a special thank you to Southside Parlor for their support and fantastic kiwi themed menu specials - including a Kiwi burger, Mozzie wine, and pear cider.

Looking at other June highlights, one week prior to Matariki Pub Night, ANZA Korea was happy to collaborate with AustCham Korea and KiwiCham Korea to hold Pub Night 2.0 at the Workshop in HBC.

Additionally, taking a break from pub events, we were glad to once again team-up with Deutscher Club Seoul to host a joint walking tour of Insadong and the nearby area, under the expert guidance of Prof. Mason. Last but not least, wrapping-up the busy month, we were pleased to hold our June Morning Coffee at Bidam hanok cafe in Anguk.

Read on for more detailed event recaps and updates on what to expect in the coming weeks!

June Committee Meeting

This month's ANZA Committee meeting was held at Cafe Onion in Anguk. Although the weather posed a challenge to gathering offline, it was great for everyone to catch-up and discuss past and upcoming events.
