ANZA Korea - Australian Botanical Art Exhibition

On September 16, ANZA Korea hosted a visit to the Australian Botanical Art Exhibition at the Kyung-In Museum of Fine Art in Insadong, followed by a coffee morning.

Artist Sun Ho Lee shared her reflections on how Australia's unique flora, her experience living there, and studying at Melbourne Botanical School and Melbourne Royal Botanic Garden inspired her artworks. Each work captures a particular species of native Australian flora such as the silver princess gum and the waratah flower. Her solo exhibition ran until September 20.

After visiting the exhibition, ANZA members enjoyed some coffee and traditional tea at the tea house within the art gallery. We thank Sun for her generosity in treating us and sharing her art, and once again congratulate her on a successful exhibition.

Past Event Recap AustCham Pub Night: Bledisloe Cup

On September 15, ANZA joined and supported the 2022 Bledisloe Cup at The Workshop in Haebangchon, an event hosted by AustCham Korea and also supported by The Kiwi Chamber.

Australians and New Zealanders watched a live broadcast of the Bledisloe Cup, an annual rugby union competition originally staged between the national teams of Australia's Wallabies and New Zealand's All Blacks, contested since the 1930s.

Guests were treated to complimentary charcuterie boards and Workshop-classic pie specials. We congratulate both teams for their great efforts, and especially congratulate the All Blacks for reigning in a close win in the final minutes of the game.

Past Event Recap Visit to The Sool Company

ANZA Vice President Kate Kalinova attended a special pre-opening of an all-in-one experience space, micro-brewery and bottle shop for The Sool Company, which specialises in traditional Korean alcohol (sool).

The experience including learning about traditional alcohol brewing and food pairings. The space will be open to the public by October.

To find out more or make a booking inquiry, contact The Sool Company Founder and Aussie sool expert, Julia Mellor by email at julia@thesoolcompany.com or Instagram (@thesoolcompany / @thesoolcompanykr)

September Committee Meeting

This month's ANZA Committee meeting was held at Cafe Onion, Seongdong. It was great for everyone to catch-up and discuss events, especially the upcoming Taste of Australia. We also welcomed Jasmin Hayes, our new committee member for Memberships.

Past Event Recap Inspire with Innovation: Kiwi Chamber of Commerce

ANZA attended the Inspire with Innovation Breakfast at the Conrad Hotel Seoul by invitation of The Kiwi Chamber. We were grateful to have been given an insightful presentation by Insong Kim, Co-founder and Chief Strategy Officer at 동네 DONGNAE, an innovative startup focusing on Korea's residential market and transforming the dynamics of the sector. It was especially meaningful to join the event given Insong's links to both Australia and New Zealand.
